Tilden Dead.

The following was received just as we went to press:

CINCINNATI, August 4.—Samuel J. Tilden died at 8 o'clock this morning at his home at Greystone, N. Y., aged seventy-two years.

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Don't kick.

DURING the twelve months ending June 30th, the breadstuff exported from this country was valued at $122,909,379, against exports valued at $156,451,831 for the previous year.

We seize the opportunity to remark that the people didn't take the Republican Enterprise's advice and "rotate" Frank Devine's competitor out of office—not by about 800 votes. Frank the worst beaten fellow on the "full ticket."

GENERAL DANBY H. MAURY, of Virginia, has been appointed Minister to Colombia, vice Hon. Charles D. Jacob resigned. Maury is a Virginian, and belongs to one of the oldest families of that State. The appointment is said to be a good one.

We commend the following to Frank Devine, Billie Dawson and others of the late "full ticket":

"If you throw yourself into political strife, And get hit with a political brick, You will show your good sense by holding your jaw.

And never once making a kick."

WHEN Frank Devine was put on the "full ticket" by the Republicans we remarked in these columns that "he had been itching to run for Sheriff for years," and added that "he wouldn't run again after the August election." We haven't changed our opinion at all. Perrie snowed him under most beautifully.

One of these honest voters of Louisville will rise up and smash the vote-sellers and the vote-buyers. The law provides that a man who buys an office shall lose both his money and his purchase, and somewhere in the sweet by-and-by the law is going to be enforced—not this year, but some other year—Louisville Times.

WINCHESTER has it bad—the base ball fever. Even the lawyers and doctors have gone to playing. A game last week resulted in a victory for the latter. Another game between the "Fatties" and "Leans" was won by the latter, the score standing sixty-six to sixty. Several "Fatties" were carried off the field on stretchers. Old and young have the "crash" and turn out en masse whenever a game is to be played.

In speaking of affairs in Rowan County, special Prosecuting Attorney Asher G. Garth says:

"I believe that nine-tenths of the people of Rowan County are law-abiding citizens and wish to see the law enforced. They are people of ordinary intellect, and grand juries have always been asked to do what they can do to what is right and, with one or two exceptions, I have seen no display of partisan spirit on the part of any member of the grand jury. They found about twenty indictments, including misdemeanors and felonies. Two or three cases were appealed to the Court of Appeals. The grand jury will meet again this week and will immediately undertake the work of discovering the murderers of Martin and Bungarden. I regard Judge Cole as an able, brave and strictly impartial man, anxious to enforce the law. He is determined that the juries shall be fair, even if he has to send out of the county to get them."

OUR NEIGHBORS.

WASHINGTON.

We best 'em. Free whisky and beer flowed like water, but a burly brandy would not have saved them.

Of course there was the usual number of saps, but they could be relied on, and had plenty without them.

We are rather of the opinion that the whisky and beer must move a good deal deeper than it will never be more resurrected.

The good people of this community have not been able to get away from whisky since we have no more dominion over them.

Clored church members put some of their white brothers to shame by coming out to the whisky and beer saloons, and, amazingly, for the hellish traffic is on the wane.

There has been a damper put on the whisky market, but the trade in beer is still pretty well, and the same old service. It is the kind you always get in a saloon, or bar.

This is just a beginning. Let whisky continue to decline, and we will be in a position, for the hellish traffic is on the wane.

Small-pox would have been preferable to the decence people of this precinct than the dead.

MARYSLICK.

Mrs Annie C. Shanks, is visiting this family, near this place.

The election passed off quietly last Monday, everybody voted and went home in a good humor.

Col. A. F. Bowens, representing Roberts, Bowens & Co., has been here for the purpose of concluding a few days here last week.

Elder W. A. Gibson and wife left by the C. C. Tuesday morning. He goes to the South to visit his father's family in Shelby County.

TERRIBLE BUTCHERY.

Two Men Brutally Slain at a Picnic in Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, Mo., Aug. 4.—At a picnic given at the Meyer school house Saturday, nine miles north of this place, a terrible affray occurred among which two men lost their lives. Farmers from the surrounding villages gathered at this picnic to spend the day in hunting amusements, and one John Garner took advantage of the gathering to establish a booth for the sale of beer without complying with the legal requirement of procuring a license. Several头部 farmers presented to him on Chancy Hague, constable of Granville town, to suppress the nuisance.

Mr. Hague placed Garner under arrest and putting a party in charge of the booth, sent the constable with his party to the scene. Edward, a brother of the Garner, ran up with an ax in his hand and struck the constable a blow on the neck, severing the windpipe, and struck him with such force that he fell, and the constable, bone and all, down to the lung. Tel Fogarty, who ran up to Hague's assistance, received a blow from the ax in his left side, cutting through the ribs and almost severing the body in twain. Before the horrified bystanders could regain their presence of mind, Garner, with the sword, brandishing his ax, and as yet has not been captured. Hague was quiet, industrious citizens, and the terrible fate that befel him while in the discharge of their duty, has caused little sympathy among the neighbors, that when captured, the courts will not be burdened with his case.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Young Man Shoots His Sweetheart, Her Father and Himself.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 4.—On the spring John Ide was engaged as a farm hand by John Ruthe, of Mayville, thirteen miles from here. Ide soon formed an attachment for Miss Mary, the seventeen-year-old daughter of the farmer. His love seemed to be reciprocated by the young girl, and their attachment increased until Ide proposed for the young lady's hand and was refused it by her father. The enraged lover then asked the young lady to slope, but she refused to do so.

Ide pressed his claim upon her, but with the increase of his ardor she grew obstinate and finally told him her affection was not such that she would forsake her home to become his wife, and that unless he desisted in his proposal she would return to her parents. Ide then made his proposal known to his employer, who was greatly annoyed. This decision made Ide decide to do violence for revenge. When the young lady and her father went for the cows, Ide hid along the way they were to traverse and shot dead both the daughter and her father. He then took his gun and the tools of his dying sweetheart, and placing a revolver at his head, pulled the trigger. Within five minutes after the first shot was fired all three bodies were lifeless.

David Davis Will.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Aug. 4.—The will of late David Davis was offered for probate yesterday. It was a simple will, verification of the signature. It was made on March 9, 1883, just prior to Mr. Davis' second marriage. It is very voluminous. The estate is valued at about $1,000,000, chiefly in lands in Illinois. The wife, Mrs. Davis, receives the entire sum. Her husband left her $2,000 in money, all the furniture purchased since their marriage, carriages, horses, etc. The family home should be retained in the family, unless sold, but does not specify why shall take it. He provides comfortable support for his poor relations. After setting out various large tracts of land to his children and grandchildren, he bequeathes all the rest to his son and daughter in common. He earnestly enjoins on his heirs not to sell or encumber the estate.

The Answer on Social Science.

Some time since the following query from Toronto was respectfully submitted: "Does our mental progress keep pace with that of other nations?" The query was given to the committee on social science for investigation, and Prof. H. H. Johnson, chairman, has begged leave to report. The committee had kept their eyes open and their tongues going. They had discovered that where one work on history or science was sold 10,000 fly sheets of some new love story book were sold upon the doorsteps of as many houses and eagerly read by the mother and her daughter.

They had found that for every one book of solid reading carried home by an adult 30,000 books purporting to teach Indian history and Sioux Sign language. In Canada where in chronic suffer from this disease, who had been driven almost to the verge of insanity by the continual use of the book, has been most effectively relieved her promptly, and she now passes the once dreaded rounds with but little difficulty. I could not find any other instance of a similar character, but this is a remarkable case."

HERE THEY ARE.

The Complete Returns Reduce the Democratic Majorities Some Little,

But They Are Still Large Enough for All Practical Purposes.

Complete returns have been received from Monday's election in this county. The Republicans carried Murphysville precinct by a larger majority than was reported at first. This cuts the Democratic majorities down a little, but does not change the final result to any great extent. The majorities range from about .256, for Dennis Fitzgerald, to .775, for Dan Perrine—the majorities of the other Democats who had opposition falling some where between the above numbers. Considering the determined efforts made by the Republicans for three or four of the offices, as well as some other matters, the victory is a big one.

The vote polled was not the full vote of the county. There are nearly 5,000 voters in Mason, and only about 3,000 or 3,700 went to the polls Monday. The Democrats were over-confident, and many remained at home having no doubt as to the election of all their nominees. If the full vote of the county had been polled, the Democratic majorities would undoubtedly have been much larger.

Following are the complete returns, excepting the vote for Magistrates and Constables. The official count has not been finished. It will not materially change the result:

The Suicide of Her Brother Causes the Death of Her Mother and Drives Her Insane—Mr. Gladstone Watching the New Cabinet—Ministry Visiting the Queen.

LONDON.—The scenes depicting the sad experience and cruel fate of the favorite Italian prima donna, Zaira Gattini, A short time ago Zaira, her mother and two brothers went to Barcelona, where the prima donna was to fill an engagement. While there the mother became ill. Physicians were called but the patient steadily grew worse. Zaira attended at the bedside of her mother during the day, and regularly appeared at the theater each night, leaving her brothers to watch over the sick one. One night while Zaira was attending at the theater, physicians informed her brother that their mother was in a hopeless condition and could live but a few hours at the most. The older of the brothers, crazed with grief at this announcement, seized a pistol and shot himself dead in the presence of his mother, who expired almost immediately afterward.

The younger brother hastened to the theater to inform his sister. He was admitted, and met her just as she was leaving the stage, burdened with flowers and her ears ringing with the applause of the audience. In a few words he told her what had happened, when with a groan she fainted. Her brother, however, having run to a window and attempted to throw herself to the ground. She was restrained by friends, who, attracted by her cries, rushed toward her, and immediately conveyed her to a physician. When her pulse had again returned she said to her son that she had deprived her of her reason, permanently the physicians feared, and she is now confined in a asylum.
